Sec. 42.051 RSMo. requires agencies collect veteran status and inform eligible veterans about veteran services. MSPD does not use this information to determine eligibility for an attorney. Have you ever served on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and separated from such service under conditions other than dishonorable? YES NO If yes, would you like to receive information and assistance regarding veteran's benefits and services? YES NO If yes, may MSPD share your contact information with the Missouri Veterans Commission in order to provide you with information regarding available veterans benefits and services? YES NO

General information may also be found on the Missouri Veterans Commission's website. MSPD does not offer its own veteran services.

FEES
I understand that if I am accepted as a client by the Missouri State Public Defender (MSPD), I will owe a fee as set out in this chart, even if I hire a private attorney after I apply for and am accepted by the Public Defender. No fee will be assessed for applicants who are charged as a juvenile or are under the age of 18 at the time of applying.	Entry with early withdrawal	$25
	Misdemeanors and Probation Violation Cases	$125
	Felonies, Appeals and Post-Conviction Relief	$375
	Felony Sex Cases	$500
	Murder Non-Capital and Civil Commitment Cases	$750
	Capital Murder Case	$1,500

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND PROMISE TO PAY

- I understand MSPD may contact government agencies, credit bureaus, employers, banks or other financial institutions to verify my financial situation.
- My signature constitutes authorization for release of this information to MSPD.
- By signing, I agree that I am requesting the Public Defender to represent me in all of my eligible pending criminal cases, and that I promise to pay the sum set out in the Fee section above on any case in which the Public Defender agrees to representation. I understand that this agreement and promise to pay applies to all new criminal cases against me for 12 months from the date of my signature, unless at any point I am no longer represented by the Public Defender, at which point a new application for services shall be completed.
- I understand that MSPD may collect this fee in cases where the Public Defender has undertaken representation based on this application from monies payable to me such as income tax refunds and/or lottery winnings.
- I understand this Application and Promise to pay is not a confidential attorney-client communication. The Public Defender may provide it to other government authorities (including the court) for determining eligibility for services.
- I consent to MSPD utilizing electronic communication regarding my cases unless I have indicated otherwise by checking one or more of the following boxes: Do Not Text Do Not Email
- I understand that if accepted, I am entitled to my legal file at the conclusion of my case and that if I do not request my file within 6 years from the conclusion of representation, it may be destroyed.
- I understand that providing false information on this application constitutes a crime.

NOTICE

Every person charged or under suspicion of committing a crime punishable by jail or imprisonment is entitled to a lawyer. If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer without substantial financial hardship to you or your dependents, the state will provide a lawyer for you if:

- You are detained or charged with a felony, including appeals from a felony conviction;
- You are detained or charged with a misdemeanor which will probably result in confinement in jail, including appeals from a conviction in such a case;
- You are detained or charged with a violation of probation and the judge determines your due process rights require a lawyer;
- When the federal constitution, state constitution or any law of this state requires the appointment of a lawyer.

Be advised that MSPD uses electronic communication, including but not limited to email and text messaging. Be aware that: (1.) electronic communication is not a secure method of communication; (2.) any electronic communication that is sent to you or by you may be copied and held by any or all computers or other devices through which it passes as it is transmitted; and, (3.) persons not participating in our communication may intercept our communications by improperly accessing either of our computers or other devices or another computer or device unconnected to either of us through which the electronic communication has passed. In the event you do not wish this form of communication, please notify MSPD; until such notification is received, MSPD may communicate with you electronically.
